ABSTRACT

India’s economy is on the verge of a major transformation. While the government has been promoting various policies to attract foreign investment, there is a need to focus on the domestic market to enhance growth. This paper aims to analyze the impact of the government's economic policies on the domestic market and to suggest measures to further stimulate economic growth.

Keywords: Economic Policies, Domestic Market, Growth, Transformation, Government

Received: June 23, 2018
Accepted: August 07, 2018
Research Paper

IJRAR- International Journal of Research and Analytical Reviews 7592